

Lancaster County Chooses Love Code of Conduct for Event Attendees

As attendees at Lancaster County Chooses Love events, upholding inclusive conduct is vital to maintain a welcoming environment for all participants. Our code of conduct guides respectful, sensitive interactions that embrace diversity. Making space for different voices, avoiding assumptions, and prohibiting harassment fosters participation across identities and experiences. Abiding by these standards allows all attendees to feel valued, comfortable, and able to fully engage. Maintaining inclusive principles through our behaviors promotes Lancaster County Chooses Love's mission of community empowerment.

By attending this Lancaster County Chooses Love event, you agree to abide by this code of conduct and help create a welcoming space for all participants.

Respect

- Treat all attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff, and the venue with courtesy and respect.
- Listen considerately when others are speaking and do not disrupt presentations.
- Follow all instructions from event staff and volunteers.

Inclusion

- This event welcomes individuals of diverse backgrounds, identities, and perspectives.
- Make space for all voices. Avoid dominating Q&A sessions or group discussions.
- Use inclusive language. Do not make assumptions about anyone's identity or experiences.

Sensitivity

- Avoid offensive comments, insults, personal attacks, or insensitive jokes.
- Do not photograph, record, or share personal details about others without consent.
- Dress appropriately for a mixed professional/community event.

Harassment

- Harassment includes offensive behavior, intimidation, stalking, and unwanted recording or physical contact.
- Report any harassment to event staff immediately.

Compliance

- Comply with all event policies.
- Drug/alcohol impairment and dangerous behavior are prohibited.
- Abide by applicable laws.
- Lancaster County Chooses Love may deny entry or remove anyone violating this code without refund.

By attending, you agree to uphold this code of conduct to maintain a welcoming and inclusive event. We appreciate your cooperation!